Do you intend to teach in Ohio after licensure? _____

These NINE scholarships are intended for pre-service teachers who are in a declared licensure program and need to improve their language skills by studying abroad. Please include the following in your application packet.

- A completed application form.
- Two letters of reference from faculty members who know you well. At least one should be a foreign language faculty member with whom you have studied. Their letters should indicate how long they have known you, your need for the scholarship, and the potential you have for benefiting from the program in which you plan to participate. They should also include how they may be contacted if further information is needed.
- A letter from you including your reasons for wanting a career in foreign language education and why you desire to participate in the study abroad program you have selected. Also, please indicate any previous foreign travel or study abroad programs in which you have participated.
- Indicate details of the study abroad program you have chosen including its accreditation status, location, type of program (home stay, type of courses, volunteer program, etc), length of stay, and cost of participation. Scholarship checks will be credited directly to the study abroad program in which you plan to participate, so please indicate to whom and where the check should be sent. .

Application packets must be received by March 1. Recipients will be notified and checks will be awarded by May 5.

I understand that the information on this application is correct, to the best of my knowledge. I understand that misinformation will void my application.
